Barbara, thanks for the quick review; OK on the Sat/Sun; on the Proposed Plan, I put in 0 to show that as the Proposed Plan completion date - I didn't show the start date - that actual start date is before the end of the FS, and allows including background/history/meeting info/maps/tables/contamination/risk/etc., which is known before the end of the FS. I will cleanup Plan E, rename it Plan A & send it out to the team today for review.

One other note, the briefing for Sam scheduled for tomorrow 1/19/11 is probably going to be changed to next week or possibly two weeks later; I'll let you know when its confirmed.

Thanks,

You need to clean up the schedule. A lot of your dates fall on Saturday. You will need to put more time in to draft the proposed plan. Not realistic to place 0 days.
